Part III.

It is not necessary for applicant to provide a separate record of the substance of the interview, since the interview directly resulted in the allowance of the application. The examiner will provide a written summary of the substance of the interview in the Notice of Allowability.

It is not necessary for applicant to provide a separate record of the substance of the interview, since the interview did not result in resolution of all issues. A brief summary by the examiner appears in Part II above.

(Applicant/Applicant's Representative Signature – if appropriate)

Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was discussed: As prior discussed, applicant responded with a further set of draft claims on 6/17/2009, herein attached. Robert Hails described the embodiment represented in draft claim 1 (6/17/2009), and held the position that the draft claim distinguished over Leinberger and Walser. Examiner maintained that the draft claim 1 would be considered obvious in reference to Leinberger in view of Walser. No agreement was reached. .
